The image shows the exterior of a historic building, likely a university building, with a prominent arched entrance. The building is constructed of dark stone or brick with some lighter-colored sections. There are several windows with dark frames. In the foreground, there are lush green plants and trees, some with small red berries, partially obscuring the view of the building. A yellow rectangular overlay is positioned on the left side of the image, containing text.

norwichuni.ac.uk

We are one of the great British art schools: a specialist creative arts university that draws on 175 years of history, with our focus on the future and the role of creativity in addressing global challenges and opportunities.

For further information on Norwich University of the Arts and our Community please visit www.norwichuni.ac.uk

We celebrate diversity and believe it to be at the core of any creative endeavour. Whatever your background, identity and prior experience, wherever you are from, we want you to bring your whole self to work each day, in an environment that recognises your unique contribution.

In choosing to work at Norwich University of the Arts, you will join a community of creative academics, technicians and professional experts who are committed to delivering exceptional Creative Arts Education, Research and Knowledge Exchange. You will work in a stimulating and critically engaged workplace, where the creativity of all our students will develop because of your commitment.

We are renowned for our teaching quality. We have been awarded Gold in the Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) with the highest possible rating. We are the only creative arts and design university with a triple gold TEF rating.

We have been awarded 'Arts University of the Year 2025' by the Daily Mail. We are in the Top 10 for Teaching Quality in the 2022 Sunday Times Good University Guide. We were the highest climber in the Complete University Guide 2023 – the highest-ranked specialist creative arts university outside London and were named University of the Year for Student Retention by the Sunday Times 2020 Good University Guide for the support we offer from pre-enrolment to post-graduation.

You will work in the heart of Norwich. We are proud of our award-winning campus, which has played a pivotal role in regenerating an exciting quarter of the city.

Our 21st century teaching spaces and workshops are housed in renovated buildings with Medieval, Victorian and Edwardian heritage. Norwich University of the Arts won the Outstanding Estates Strategy Award at the 2018 Times Higher Leadership and Management Awards.

In support of its new Strategy, the University has recently acquired a new building in the heart of Norwich. Bank Plain, a former bank, is an additional 37,000 sq. ft of space and an ambitious commitment to being a high profile, civic university championing the creative arts.

Ninety-four per cent of our graduates are in work or further study six months after graduation, and Norwich University of the Arts won a Guardian University Award for Employability and Entrepreneurship in 2019 for our innovative 'gamification' of careers advice. You will find our graduates in key positions across and beyond the creative sector and industries.

There are of course Oscar nominees and BAFTA winners, but also rising stars who are honoured across the creative industries: from D&AD Pencil winners, to emerging fine artists, photographers and fashion designers.

We understand that making career choices requires careful consideration. We hope that as you learn about us you will be inspired by our ambitions for the future.

Vice-Chancellor

Committed to equality and valuing diversity

Norwich University of the Arts is committed to being an inclusive community that offers equality of opportunity and enables our staff and students to flourish and succeed, regardless of their background or personal circumstances.

Our commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion is embedded in everything that we do. We celebrate the diversity of our backgrounds, cultures and actions, promoting art and design as a catalyst of social change.

As such, we are champions for the creative arts; empowering all of our students to be valued and productive members of society, with ambitions to change the world.

Main Responsibilities

- Plan and coordinate the day-to-day handling of all paid and organic social media channels such as Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, TikTok and YouTube, adapting content to suit different channels. Manage any new social channels that are developed in the future which the University decides are essential
- Take responsibility for monitoring social media activity, responding to social media posts and developing discussions in an appropriate manner, signposting to other University services/depts where appropriate and escalating issues or items of concern to the relevant manager
- Work with colleagues across the University, including the Marketing, Recruitment and International teams, to create engaging multimedia and written content that is optimised fully to reach and engage the right audiences on the most appropriate platforms supporting our lead generation and student recruitment campaigns and targets
- Oversee the delivery of content plans for each channel focused on encouraging brand engagement and generating conversations across all channels
- Take an insights-led approach to social media content planning to ensure we are always improving on our approach, supporting our continuous improvement ethos
- Regularly evaluate content and social campaigns and use these insights to inform future work
- Take responsibility for ensuring quality of content outputs by assessing relevancy, accuracy, status, appropriateness, accessibility and timeliness of social media content
- Work with groups, communities, and social media account owners across the University, to share best practice and encourage a similar approach to quality control in other internal social media channels through regular meetings and training
- Stay up to date with audience mindset, the latest social media trends and digital technologies and sharing social media understanding across the team and University
- Work as part of the Marketing and Recruitment team, providing content, website, intranet support and cover, where required
- Working flexibly and supporting the organisation with the development and delivery of key University onsite and online events
- Undertake any other appropriate duties as may be required by the Content Manager or members of the team.

Person Specification

Further Information

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

It is important that our University community supports our policy on equality, diversity and inclusion and that each of us reflects this in the way that we work.

Health and Safety

We are all responsible for helping to make the University a safe and healthy place to work and study, ensuring that we are compliant with our Health and Safety Policy.

Policies and Procedures

We should keep up to date with the University's policies and processes which are usually available on our intranet, reflecting these in the way that we work.

Staff Development

Our performance and development activities include appraisal and development reviews, participation in learning and development, and a personal responsibility to maintain our own subject knowledge.

Confidentiality

We must maintain appropriate confidentiality in relation to our work and that of the University.

Variation to Job Description

We may vary your duties and responsibilities outlined in the job description to reflect the changing needs of the University.

General Information

Terms and Conditions of Appointment

On appointment, you will receive a full statement of terms and conditions for your role.

Duties

Your duties and responsibilities are outlined in the job description

Starting Date

This post is offered on an indefinite basis from November 2024.

Hours of Work

The standard hours of work are not less than 37 hours per week.

Salary

This post is on an incremental salary scale. The salary for this post is Grade 5, which is from £27,344 - £31,387 per annum, rising to £27,644 - £31,637 per annum from 1st March 2025

Annual Leave

Your annual leave entitlement will be 26 days per annum on appointment, rising to 28 days per annum between 3 and 5 years of service, and 30 days per annum after 5 years of service by the commencement of the annual leave year, plus 8 statutory days (pro rata). In addition, the University may grant 4 or 5 concessionary days leave per year when the University is closed.

Pension

Employees have the benefit of joining the Local Government Pension Scheme, a defined benefit pension scheme which builds up a pension on a "Career Average" salary basis to which the University currently contributes an additional 24.4%.

As a member of the scheme, you would be provided with a secure future retirement income, independent of share prices and stock market fluctuations. There is also cover in the event of early retirement on the grounds of permanent ill-health, redundancy or business efficiency. Plus you have the option, on retirement, to exchange part of your pension for some tax-free cash.

From the moment you join, the benefits of the pension scheme also include life cover and family benefits for partners and children in the event of your death.

As a member of the Local Government Pension Scheme you have the security of these valuable benefits at a relatively low cost to you. You can find out more about the pension scheme by visiting the Norfolk Pension Fund website at <https://www.norfolkpensionfund.org>

DBS Applications

Individuals applying for this role will be required to complete an on-line DBS check and to provide the requested original documentation for checking and photocopying as part of the application process. All costs for a disclosure and barring check will be met by the University. Failure of the individual to provide information that is directly relevant to any DBS check could lead to the withdrawal of an offer of employment.

Interview Expenses

Reasonable travel and incidental expenses will be reimbursed when agreed in advance in line with the University's Candidate Interview Expenses Guidelines which are available on request.

Offers of Employment

All provisional offers of employment are subject to evidence of eligibility to work in the UK, verification of qualifications, satisfactory references and medical assessment process.

If you are unsure of your right to work in the UK you can use the Gov.uk visa checking tool to establish your eligibility and options relating to visas.

Please be aware that all visa routes have their own eligibility criteria and not all roles/applicants will be eligible for sponsorship under the Skilled Worker visa route

Referees

References will not normally be taken up unless a provisional offer of employment is made. All offers of employment are subject to receipt of satisfactory references covering current or most recent employment and the past three years of work.

We regret we are unable to accept late applications.

Interview Arrangements

Interviews will normally be held on campus.

We will be in touch to let you know if you are shortlisted for interview.

The date of the interview will be:
11th February 2025

Due to the high volume of applications we receive we are unable to provide you with feedback.

If you are shortlisted, we will ask you to provide us with evidence of your eligibility to work in the UK.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your interest in this position and wish you success with your application.

If you have any queries regarding any aspect of the recruitment and selection process, please contact the Human Resources Team by emailing jobs@norwichuni.ac.uk.
